TODAY'S MATCHUP

Overall: 87th meeting (Alabama leads, 48-37-1)

In Tuscaloosa: Alabama trails, 6-7

Current Streak: Alabama, Won 2

Last Meeting: Nov. 27, 2021 - Auburn (W, 24-22 (4 OT))

Series Notes: Alabama and Auburn will meet for the 87th time in Iron Bowl history when the in-state rivals square off on Saturday. The Crimson Tide holds a 48-37-1 all-time advantage in the long-standing series that dates to 1893. The regular-season finale for both teams will be just the 12th pairing at Bryant-Denny Stadium and 14th overall in Tuscaloosa with the Tide currently riding a five-game winning streak at home. Alabama head coach Nick Saban is 12-8 all-time against AU, including a 10-5 mark while with the Tide.

NON-OFFENSIVE TDs

Alabama recorded its 90th touchdown of the Nick Saban era at then-No. 6/8 Tennessee on Oct. 15 when Dallas Turner picked up a fumble and returned it from 11 yards out. Since Saban's arrival in 2007, no team in college football has totaled more non-offensive scores than the Crimson Tide. During Saban's tenure, Alabama recorded a single-season record 15 in 2016, which led the Football Bowl Subdivision and was the most in a season by any FBS team in the last 20 years. The Tide also scored a non-offensive touchdown in 10 straight games dating from the CFP Semifinal against Michigan State on Dec. 31, 2015 to the Texas A&M game on Oct. 22, 2016 for 14 non-offensive touchdowns in that span – four interceptions, four punt returns, five fumble recoveries and a kickoff return.

38 OF 51:

The Nov. 15 release of the College Football Playoff Rankings had the Crimson Tide as the No. 8 team. Alabama has made 38 total appearances in the top four of the 51-week, all-time selection committee rankings. Of those 38 top-four appearances, UA has been No. 1 a total of 24 times, which is more than every other team combined in CFP history. Only six other teams have been ranked No. 1, with the Tide nearly tripling the nine first-place appearances by second-place Georgia. Clemson is third with eight appearances atop the poll, while LSU, Mississippi State and Ohio State are all tied for fourth with three appearances per program at No. 1, while Tennessee rounds out the group with one total week atop the poll. The Crimson Tide finished the 2020 season as national champions making Alabama the only No. 1 seed in the initial rankings to go on and win it all in the history of the Playoff.

STARTING WITH A TOUCHDOWN

Junior quarterback Bryce Young has thrown for at least one touchdown pass across all 25 games that he has started for the Crimson Tide. Young's touchdown pass to Jermaine Burton in the second quarter of last weekend's matchup with Austin Peay pushed him past Tua Tagovailoa for the most consecutive games with at least one touchdown pass in Alabama history.

500+ YARDS OF TOTAL OFFENSE

Alabama has recorded 500-plus yards of total offense 54 times in the last 111 games (dating to the start of the 2015 season), including six of the 11 games in 2022. The Crimson Tide went for 559 against Utah State, 509 against ULM, 628 in the Vanderbilt contest, 555 at then-No. 20/19 Arkansas on Oct. 1, 569 at then-No. 6/8 Tennessee on Oct 15 and most recently 527 against Austin Peay.

BALL PROTECTION

In the last 205 games (dating back to the start of the 2008 season), Alabama has turned the ball over only 221 times (120 fumbles, 101 interceptions) for an average of 1.08 turnovers per game. Since 2009, the Tide has turned the ball over only 203 times in 192 games (1.06/game). The 203 turnovers since 2009 includes 81 interceptions in 5,190 attempts (one interception every 64.1 attempts) by UA starting quarterbacks and 32 lost fumbles in 5,100 carries by the Tide's top two running backs.

THE TERMINATOR

Will Anderson Jr. paces the Crimson Tide in tackles for loss with 14.0 (-60 yards) and sacks at 8.0 (-43 yards). This comes one year after Anderson Jr. led the nation with 17.5 sacks and 34.5 tackles for loss (an NCAA record since 2000). Those numbers placed Anderson Jr. second on Alabama's single-season tackles for loss list behind only Derrick Thomas (1988 - 39.0) while he was third on UA's single-season sacks list, trailing Thomas once again (1988 - 27.0 and 1987 - 18.0). His totals as a junior and sophomore, paired with his 10.5 tackles for loss and 7.0 sacks from 2020, moved him into the top three of both career lists for the Crimson Tide. Below is a look at where reigning Nagurski Trophy winner ranks heading into this weekend.

REICHARD OWNS PAT RECORD

Will Reichard owns the Crimson Tide's career record for made PATs. Entering this weekend's Iron Bowl, Reichard has made 227-of-229 career PATs. The senior recorded nine PATs against ULM on Sept. 17 to move past the former record of 186 (188 attempts) by Adam Griffith from 2013-16.

McKINSTRY THE RETURN MAN

Kool-Aid McKinstry took on the Crimson Tide's punt returner responsibilities this season and has excelled so far. The sophomore has totaled 329 yards on 19 punts to average 17.3 yards per return. His yardage total is tops in the country while his 17.3 average ranks second among all Division I returners.

RELENTLESS DISCONTENT

"I wouldn't want to be anywhere else but here at Alabama."

Will ANDERSON JR.

BY CHARLIE POTTER

It's difficult to find something new to say about Will Anderson Jr. The star linebacker is already one of the top players to ever come through Alabama's storied football program. Whether winning awards, filling the stat sheet or providing an example for his teammates, he has lived up to the immense hype from when he first stepped on campus in 2020 - and even exceeded it.

But his head coach, like most that know the elite edge rusher, can't say enough about him.

"I don't think you're going to find a better person. I don't think you're going to find a better competitor. I don't think you're going to find a guy that's going to play harder with better competitive character," Nick Saban said. "We talk a lot about pride in performance and relentless discontent and all the things that you look for in guys that are always trying to be the best that they can be - this guy's got them all. And he's a good leader. He affects everyone around him with the example that he sets, the intensity that he plays with."

"And the guy's got ability. He's a big guy. He's got speed. He can turn speed to power in pass rush. He can play with power on the line of scrimmage. He uses his hands well. And he's a smart guy. You can't ask for a better person to represent your organization, wherever you are. You're talking about class; you're talking about a class family. I can't say enough good things about who Will Anderson Jr. is as a person and what kind of player he is."

Saban doesn't like to compare players and certainly doesn't openly pick favorites. But it's been clear over the last three seasons that Anderson Jr. is in rare company in his head coach's eyes. A player that can't remember receiving a butt-chewing at practice, Anderson Jr. has instead been on the receiving end of plenty of praise from Saban, and that "means everything," he said.

"I love Coach Saban so much," Anderson Jr. said. "And to play for the greatest football coach to ever do it, it means a lot. It's such a blessing. A lot of people have a lot of opinions about you, and I always said, 'As long as my head coach, who is the greatest football coach of all time, knows what's going on and knows how I am and knows the person I am and knows what I'm doing, nothing else really matters.'"

"It just shows how much he respects and how much he cares about me - and not only me but the players that he has here and everybody in this building. It just speaks volumes to the type of person he is, and I'm very appreciative of it. I wouldn't want to be anywhere else but here at Alabama."

Anderson Jr. is only guaranteed two more games this season before he most likely moves on to the next level as a projected top-10 pick in April's 2023 NFL Draft. Ahead of what could be his final game at Bryant-Denny Stadium, he shared what playing for the Tide has meant to him.

"When I signed my letter of intent, I was all in," Anderson Jr. said. "I was committed here, not only because of what it was going to bring in the future but what it was going to bring to me now. I've built so many relationships here with a lot of people, got to meet a lot of athletes that came through here, the staff, everybody upstairs, downstairs and it's been great."

"It's been a blessing. All the people here do a fantastic job of doing their job and upholding the standard no matter if it's in the media room, training staff, even in the cafeteria. Everybody does a really good job here, and I think what Coach Saban has going on here is very special."

Arriving at Alabama as a former 5-star recruit from Hampton, Ga., Anderson Jr. has been a starter since the first game of his freshman year in 2020. Barring a return for his senior campaign, he will finish his career with the second-most sacks and tackles for loss in program history, trailing only College and NFL Hall of Famer Derrick Thomas in both categories. With double-digit tackles for loss for the third year in a row, Anderson Jr. currently leads the SEC in creating negative plays.

A finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, which he won last year, and Rotary Lombardi Award, Anderson Jr. has developed into the best defensive player in the country since he enrolled. But he has also grown as a person, and his off-the-field impact on UA has been just as important.

"Athletically, I feel like I've grown a lot," Anderson Jr. said. "I feel like Alabama's helped me become so versatile and do so many things, whether that's playing inside, 4i, four, three-technique, five, six, seven on out, dropping back in coverage. Doing all those things, they make me so much more versatile than how I was when I got here."

"And then just overall as a human being, they have so many good people in place to help you. (Josh) Chap(man), Denzel (Deval), those guys do a really good job of helping you become a better man and teaching you life lessons, teaching you how to get through adversity. They have a lot of people in place for you when you're going through stuff. So just being able to have those people here to help you grow, it's been a blessing."

One of his favorite accomplishments is being voted a team captain by his teammates last year - a feat that is likely to happen again this year and one he doesn't think his freshman self would believe if he could tell him. Another is walking across the stage at Coleman Coliseum on Dec. 10, earning his degree in communications and news media in just three years.

Anderson has made a lot of plays in his time in Tuscaloosa, dropping countless quarterback sacks and creating havoc in the backfield on a consistent basis. But in terms of the legacy that he wants to leave behind at UA, it's less about stats and more about how he affects others.

"Just a big, positive influence," Anderson Jr. said of his legacy. "Being able to connect well with others. Being a great competitor, a hard worker. Being able to get people going no matter what it is, being able to be that shoulder for people to lean on. That's really it, just being there for the people."

"I feel like football is always going to take care of itself, but just making sure that the ones around you - your teammates, your brothers - that you're uplifting them and making sure that they're OK. I want them to know that I'll always have their backs and I'm always gonna go out there and play for them and be there for them."
